

Announcement of Walailak University
On Student Recruitment for Direct Admission to the Bachelor's Degree Program for the Academic Year 2022 (Non-TCAS System)
At the Akkhararatchakumari Veterinary College, Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Program
(International Program)

The Akkhararatchakumari Veterinary College, Walailak University is now offering the direct admission to recruit students for its Bachelor's Degree Program in Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Program (International Program) in Academic Year 2022 (Non-TCAS System). Below is admission procedure and program requirements:

1. Admission procedure and required documents

The application can be made online at www.wu.ac.th or <http://entry.wu.ac.th> from now until 10th June 2022. The student applicants must follow the steps instructed on the webpage. The applicants are required to complete all required information and prepare the following sets of documents in the form of a PDF File;

1. A copy of their academic transcript
2. A copy of their identification card
3. A copy of their household registration
4. A copy of their Certificate of English Proficiency Test Result

Once the online application and all required documents have been completed, the applicants must print an application fee payment slip of 300 Baht (Three Hundred Baht Only) and make the payment at any available Counter Service or at Siam Commercial Bank.

2. Number of student intake and applicant's qualifications

2.1 Number of student intake

Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Program (International Program): 40 students

2.2 Applicant's qualifications

(1) Applicants must have graduated or currently be enrolled in their final year of high school (Mattayom 6 in Thai system or its equivalent levels) from either international schools in Thailand or aboard.

For applicants who are currently enrolled in Mattayom 6

- Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPAX) of at least five semesters should not be lower than 3.20.

- Cumulative grade average in foreign language subject (English) of at least five semesters should not be lower than 3.50.

- Study Program: Science and Mathematics Program in high school curriculum.

For applicants who graduated from Mattayom 6

- Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPAX) of at least six semesters should not be lower than 3.20.
- Cumulative grade average in foreign language subject (English) of at least six semesters should not be lower than 3.50.
- Study Program: Science and Mathematics Program in high school curriculum.

For applicants who graduated from international schools in Thailand (using English as a medium of instruction) or abroad.

- Applicants must submit the academic result of Chemistry, Biology, Physics and Mathematics subjects.
- Applicants must achieve a minimum score of IELTS not lower than 6.0 or an equivalent score in an English Proficiency Test.

3 . Admission Schedule

The application is open from now until 10th June 2022. For further details of selection results and other relevant schedules, please visit www.wu.ac.th or <http://entry.wu.ac.th>. Brief details of admission activities and their schedule is shown in the following table;

Activities	Admission schedule
1. Application period and fee payment of 300 Baht	Now until 10 th June 2022.
2. Announcement of successful applicants	The announcement will be made online or by phone.
3. Confirmation of admission	The successful applicants must confirm their seats within 15 days after the announcement date.

4. Other conditions for admission selection

4.1 If any incorrect, incomplete application information or unqualified applicant apply at a later time, it is deemed that the application will be considered void, and any fees will not be refunded in any case.

4.2 For former Walailak University students who would like to re-enroll in to the program, they are required to resign their previous student status and are permitted to re-enroll only one time. If it is found at a later time that the reenrollment is made without resigning, the University will immediately cancel the admission, and any fees will not be refunded in any case.

Please be informed of the announcement

Announced on August , 2021

(Professor Dr. Sombat Thamrongthanyawong)
President of Walailak University